

CURRICULUM VITAE

Maurizio Sciuto (Rome, 10 May 1969)

Training and academic activities

Graduated in Law in 1993 from the University of Rome “La Sapienza”, with a dissertation thesis in Commercial Law (110/110 cum laude). Obtained a PhD in Commercial Law in 1999 from the University of Rome “Tor Vergata”. Became associate professor in 2000. Professor of Commercial Law since 2005 at the University of Macerata, where he began teaching Commercial Law, Banking and Bankruptcy Law. In charge from 2009 to 2015 of the "Fausto Vicarelli Laboratory for the study of the relationship between banks and industry". Carried out numerous study visits abroad.

Italian mother tongue, fluent in English, French and German.

Author of numerous publications in the fields of corporate law, bankruptcy and banking.

Professional activity

An Italian-qualified attorney since 1998, and barrister (qualified before the Italian Higher Courts).

Judicial activity: expert in civil litigation, with a focus on corporate, banking and financial intermediation as well as bankruptcy law. A member of numerous arbitration tribunals, both in Italy and abroad.

Court action: provides advice and consultancy services to corporate, banking and restructuring firms.

Currently a member of the Rome College of Arbitro Bancario e Finanziario (Banking and Financial Arbitrator) appointed by the Bank of Italy.

Research activities

The author of and regular contributor to numerous publications in renowned reviews, mainly in the field of corporate law, banking and financial law, bankruptcy law, as well as on mergers.

Member of the editorial board and referee in front-ranking specialised reviews on law, such as the Rivista del diritto societario, Diritto della banca e del mercato finanziario, Osservatorio del diritto civile e commerciale.

Member of several associations devoted to legal studies (Association Disiano Preite; Association Orizzonti del Diritto Commerciale; I.S.S.A. - Institute of Arbitration Studies, Verein der Freunde des Hamburger Max-Planck-Instituts für ausländisches und internationales Privatrecht e.V.).