EMPLOYMENT – POSTGRADUATE RESEARCH EXPERIENCE

Research interests: ageing processes and informal caregiving policies; medical professionalism and healthcare policies; innovation policies and Industry 4.0 strategies; professional identity and precarization processes; sociological theory and history of sociological thought.

2023 – ongoing: RTD-A Researcher (University of Macerata – Department of Economics and Law): supporting the activities related to the project “Innovation, digitalisation and sustainability for the diffused economy in Central Italy” (PNRR project SAFINA “Smart solutions and educational programs for anti-fragility and inclusivity - Spoke 7).

2022 – ongoing: Researcher (IRCCS-INRCA National Institute of Health & Science on Ageing, Centre for Socio-Economic Research on Ageing, Ancona - Italy): supporting the activities related to a project focused on national and international Long-Term Care policies, with an emphasis on Informal Caregiving. Main activities: literature review; liaising with institutional and non-institutional stakeholders; drafting research reports and scientific papers; field research; dissemination activities.

2017 - 2022: Post-Doctoral Research Fellow (Polytechnic University of Marche – Department of Economics and Social Sciences, Ancona - Italy): supporting the activities related to two Strategic Research Projects: “Competences for SMEs growth in innovative and eco-sustainable sectors. Gaps and policy options” (11/2019 – 10/2022); “Maternity care for the future: policies, professionals and end-users” (11/2017-10/2019). Main activities: literature review, field research by using quantitative and qualitative methodologies, collection and analysis of data, drafting research reports and scientific papers, dissemination activities.

2019 – 2022: Lecturer (Polytechnic University of Marche, Ancona - Italy): Teaching activities and coordination of the following undergraduate courses: “Sociology of Institutional Relations” (ongoing) and “Sociology of Tourism and Leisure” (2019-20, Faculty of Economics); General Sociology and Sociology of the Territory (2018-19, Faculty of Medicine and Surgery).

2017 (March-June): Project Manager Assistant (Universitat Rovira i Virgili, Tarragona – Spain): I worked as intern at the International Center of the University. I supported the activities related to ongoing Erasmus Plus projects. Main activities: monitoring project development, participating in projects meetings, supporting reports production, addressing contractual issues and carrying out administration duties. Also, I lead a case study related to the project coordinated by the I-Center, carrying out interviews to university Administrative Staff and drafting a report. Finally, I collaborated in preparing H2020 project applications at the Department of Pedagogy of the Universitat Rovira i Virgili, drafting and filling in parts of the application form, liaising with project partners.

2016 (June-September): Research Collaborator ("RES" Foundation): I worked on a project dealing with political corruption in Italy, contributing to data collection and analysis. The aim of the job was creating a database dealing with dynamics and main actors in the field of political corruption in Italy over the last 30 years.

2014 (November) – 2015 (October): Post-Doctoral Research Fellow (University of Valle d'Aosta, Aosta - Italy): I worked as Principal Investigator on the research project "Se faire soi: the construction of personal and professional identity of young people in the Valle d'Aosta Region". I analyzed the context of the study and undertook a systematic literature review, liaised with research stakeholders and participants. As for the empirical part of the study, I managed the interviews agendas, conducted semi-structured interviews and analyzed them using the method of the discourse analysis. Finally, I wrote the concluding research report.

2014 (May-August): Research Collaborator (ANCI - National Association of Italian Municipalities, Florence): I worked on a project dealing with the Italian municipal elections of May 2014, undertaking data collection, data entry and data analysis. The aim of the job was to create a database of the candidates for the municipal elections in Tuscany.

2013 (June-July): Research Collaborator (University of Florence): I worked on the project "Avvocati a Firenze. Percorsi di lavoro, status, identità, rappresentanza e partecipazione" ["Lawyers in Florence: career paths, status, identity, delegation and participation"]. I was responsible for liaising with lawyers, conducting semi-structured interviews and analyzing them through thematic analysis.

2009 (March-May): Research Collaborator (University of Malta): I collaborated as intern in the framework of the Leonardo Project Program at the Department of Sociology of the University. I worked on a research dealing with female occupational segregation in Maltese labour market. Main duties included: carrying out literature review; gathering, analyzing and updating secondary data.

OTHER EXPERIENCES

2008-2013: Front office experience (Adiconsum, Lucca - Italy): I volunteered as part-time front office employee at the Consumers' Association 'Adiconsum'. I was responsible for one local department of the Association. Front office tasks included information and education of consumers about their rights and interests. Back office duties included: managing disputes between consumers and local/national public and private companies; liaising with the companies involved, contacting them through email or phone; annual monitoring of the activities.

2010 (February-March): Administrative assistant (Office Angels, Plymouth - UK): I worked for two months as intern at a job agency in Plymouth through the European project "Europe Training". I was responsible for screening CVs, data entry and filing, dealing with incoming emails and general administration duties. I occasionally translated documents from English to Italian.

2010 (October-December): Data collector (ISTAT – National Institute of Statistics): I worked as enumerator of the sixth Italian census of agriculture. I was responsible for contacting and interviewing owners of agricultural enterprises and testing the accuracy of data. I also performed administrative tasks and data entry.

2006-2007: Voluntary Civil Service experience (CENASCA, Lucca - Italy): I worked for a trade union as responsible for the job search and vocational training office. Front office tasks included informing unemployed people about job and vocational training opportunities and updating of CVs. Back office tasks included managing users' database, updating organization's website, general administration duties and organizing training courses. I was also occasionally in charge of the switchboard and reception of the organization.
